- Located in SE Escambia County about 17 miles east of Brewton (as the crow flies) and about 5 miles from the Florida line
- Great place for a rural home site, hunting or outdoor recreation
- Numerous building sites across much of the property. Topo is rolling mostly upland, with about 140-foot elevation change over ½ mile
- About 315 feet of frontage on paved Co Rd 11 (Dixie Hwy)
- Access to the interior is on a gated woods road off Dixie Hwy at the southeast corner of the property (see maps)
- Access to electrical service is about 800 feet south of the entrance gate along Dixie Hwy. There is no water service
- The property is all forested in a mix of pine & hardwood (not a clear-cut property)
- There are almost 1 mile of “blue-line” creeks crossing the property. On the west end these develop into about 10 acres of marshy timbered flats
- Located within the boundaries of Conecuh National Forest but does not join NF land
- Minerals are not included in the sale
- Call the listing agent, Mark Bailey, 334-312-4258, for more info or to arrange for a guided visit
- You are welcome to look at the property on your own. In this case, we suggest you print out the brochure on the web site and take it with you. This gives you a live Google Maps pin to the gated entrance, topo map and aerial photo to aid your visit. Before driving to the property, be sure to call the listing agent for gate access info
